

What We Do?

Time has changed and so do the mindsets!

More & more young people are now aspiring to be a part of the growing economy of India. These young minds is a Generation of Entrepreneurs.

At Business Minds, training is imparted in form of sharing of practical experiences in doing agricultural exports on day to day basis by which one can understand risk involved in export and practical remedies thereof, how to tact potential buyers, how to make a quotation and other practical training given by the agro-exports expert Mr. JP Kanodia. In order to start agro exports one must choose the products as well as the target market and then analyze the risk and opportunity. Everything would be completely based on our exclusive courses.

“Businesses that plan are the businesses that succeed.”
